U.S. Is Advised by France To Leave Santo Domingo political as well as military

By Waverley Root Washington Post Foreign Service

today should get out of Santo Domingo completely and at once, itself as qualified to evaluate ment. because her continued pres- and to help resolve the deplorence there is endangering in able situation in which the ternational peace.

This warning was delivered self. by Information Minister Alain Peyrefitte after this morning's convinced that the foreign in-Cabinet meeting, but no one tervention at present going on doubts that the carefully in Santo Domingo in the pophrased words are President litical and military domains of the OAS (Organization of de Gaulle's.

as follows:

ing the resolution adopted ternational peace."

Dominican Republic finds it-can only lead, if it is contin-American States). This stems represent the French statement was ued, to the extension, not only from an official belief here on the spot but also through that in the Santo Domingo af-"The government underlined out that region of the world, fair the two are practically its complete approval concern-of disorders disturbing for in-synonymous, with the United

THE WASHINGTON POST

Thursday, May 27, 1965

intervention, Paris is suggesting that Washington should not only pull out her forces, PARIS, May 26—The French|the initiative of the French|but also refrain from attemptgovernment advised the delegation. By this resolution, ing to influence the nature of she the Security Council affirms the next Dominican govern-

A second point noted here is that by using the term "foreign intervention," France "The French government is not only advocates American withdrawal from Santo Domingo, but also withdrawal States using the Latin Amer-May 22 by the Security Coun- Observers were quick to ican contingents as a screen cil of the United Nations, on point out that in speaking of to cover her own activities.